Text: Matthew 25:14-30

- The Bible speaks of "men who have risked their lives for the name of the Lord Jesus Christ" (Acts 15:26).
- Priscilla and Aquila are said to have "risked their _____" in order to aid Paul (Rom. 16:4).
- Epaphroditus is said by Paul to have "he almost died for the work of Christ, He risked his life to make up for the help you yourselves could not give me." (Phil. 2:30).

We need more risky faith...

- The entire early church is an example of a generation who risked.
- "The Christian life is a call to risk. You either live with risk or _____ your life." John Piper
- God calls the report of the ten He sent to spy out the Promised Land, "evil" (Numbers 13:32). It was evil because they refused to see it with the eyes of faith and take the risk.

What are the risks God may be calling you?

_____ always involves risk.

These servants had:

- 1. Trust in the Master's goodness.
- 2. A Desire to Share in the Master's Joy

Only one life to live, twill soon be past; only what's done for Christ will last. C.T. Studd

Where is God telling you to obey?
